DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Claims

Claims 4, 14, 16-19, 43 and 89-91.

This is in reference to applicants amendment filed on 10/29/07.

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Information Disclosure Statement

Receipt of the Information Disclosure Statement filed on 07/19/04 and 10/03/05 respectively is acknowledged and has been entered into the file. Signed copies of the 1449 are attached herewith.

Response to Restriction

Applicant's election of Group IV, claims 16-19 in the reply filed on 10/29/07 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

The addition of claims 4, 14, 43 and 89-91 to Group IV has been noted and made of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 43 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is a definition for substituent (j) on the last line of claim 43. However, none of the structural formulae depicted in the claim has substituent j. Correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 4, 14, 16-19 and 89-91 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 24-34 of copending Application No. 10/966,460.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because there are considerable amount of overlap between the contents of the composition employed in each of the methods disclosed in the current application and '460' when (m formula [I] is 1 and n is 0). The methods steps are similar since each is directed to the protection of human skin from ultraviolet radiation using composition containing similar contents which are obvious over one another. Thus, the difference between the current method and that of '460' is that of genus and species relationship. Thus, at the time of filing this application, one of ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to prepare an additional composition with a reasonable expectation that the resulting composition would protect human skin from ultraviolet radiation.

Thus, the instantly claimed method would have been suggested to one of ordinary skill in the art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim 43 is provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 24-32 of U.S. Patent number 6,899,866. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because there is a considerable amount of overlap between the content of the composition employed in each of the methods disclosed in the current application and '866' when (h and i) in the current application is 1. The method steps are similar since each is directed to the protection of human skin from ultraviolet radiation using composition containing similar contents which are obvious over one another, which are obvious over one another. The difference between the claims of the instant application and of the patent are that of genus and species relationship. Thus, at the time of filing this application, one of ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to prepare an additional composition with a reasonable expectation that the resulting composition would protect human skin from ultraviolet radiation.

Thus, the instantly claimed method would have been suggested to one of ordinary skill in the art.
